

FROM THE NORTH: Drive South down North Street and turn left on Lloyd (there is a stoplight). Once you cross Raguet street, you will enter the parking lot for the Janice A. Pattillo Early Childhood Research Center. Main entrance is at the right side of the front of the building (the pillars). When entering you will immediately see the stairs, or if you need an elevator, you can go around the corner to the right side of the foyer.

FROM THE SOUTH: Drive North up South Street. It will change to North Street at Main. Turn right on College Street (there is a stoplight), and then left on Raguet. The Janice Pattillo Early Childhood Research Center will be past the Forestry School on the right. Main entrance is at the right side of the front of the building (the pillars). When entering you will immediately see the stairs, or if you need an elevator, you can go around the corner to the right side of the foyer.
